

Introducing One eRead Canada: June 3 – 30, 2019

“One eRead Canada” is a nationwide digital reading program for public libraries, created by the Canadian Urban Libraries Council.

People across the country will all read or listen to the same book and share their thoughts and feelings about it. For the duration of the program, the audiobook and eBook will be available to an unlimited number of users, giving everyone the opportunity to read or listen to the book at the same time.

The Book

This year’s title is Glass Beads by Dawn Dumont. Suitable for adults, the stories interconnect the friendships of four First Nations people spanning over two decades against the cultural, political, and historical backdrop of the 1990s and early 2000s.

Check out One eRead Canada 2019 – Dawn’s List for other titles by the author as well as her reading recommendations, and find other titles by indigenous authors by searching “indigenous perspectives” in RPL’s catalogue.

Join RPL’s “One eRead Canada Book Club” on Thursday June 20 – two sessions offered!

Session 1: 11:00am – 12:00pm, Brighthouse branch Special Collections Room

Session 2: 2:00pm – 3:00pm, Brighthouse branch Special Collections Room

Join members of your community to discuss Glass Beads in person. Please register for one session only. Access your eBook or audiobook using the OverDrive or Libby App, available starting May 31. A small number of print copies will be available for borrowing. Ask a staff member for details.
